

My visa for the Federal Republic of Germany is expiring, but I cannot leave due to canceled traffic or flight connections. What can / should I do?

Please contact us by phone on 0571 89-700 or via email abh@minden.de.

Please enter the following data:

Name first Name

Date and place of birth

Nationality

Current adress

If possible, attach a copy of your passport. Please do not send us any original documents without prior consultation.

My residence permit or my foreign ID document have expired and I have already applied for new documents. What can / should I do?

The city of Minden has issued a general order.

This means that your stay in the Federal Republic of Germany is still permitted with an expired document.

Other authorities involved, e.g. the job center and the police have been informed.

If you have any further questions, please contact us by phone 0571 89-700 or email abh@minden.de.

My toleration or my residence permit have expired or are about to expire. What can / should I do?

The city of Minden has issued a general order. This means that your stay in the Federal Republic of Germany is still permitted with an expired document.

Other authorities involved, e.g. the job center and the police have been informed. However, we will extend your tolerance or permission for you. You can send us your document for an extension.

You can send us this either

- by post: Stadt Minden Ausländerbehörde, Postfach 3080, 32387 –

Minden

- or throw it personally into the letter box of the City Council, Kleiner Domhof 17, entrance to the Bürgerhalle at the revolving doors.

We will renew the documents as fast as possible and send them to you by post.
